Department Update

WHAT'S NEW AT THE LRC

Man's best friend; an aging rocker reminiscing on his life and career; a classic mystery first published in the late 1940s that was later made into a movie starring Paul Newman; the last agonizing months of Franklin Delano Roosevelt's presidency; the history of the Indian Wars in America; and America's victory over the Japanese in World War II. These topics and others are covered in the books that are in the LRC's "New Arrivals" sections this month.

Some of our newest titles include:

The Earth Is Weeping: the Epic Story of the Indian Wars for the American West, by Peter Cozzens

Secret Service Dogs: the Heroes Who Protect the President of the United States, by Maria Goodavage

American Heiress: the Wild Saga of the Kidnapping, Crimes and Trial of Patty Hearst, by Jeffrey Toobin.

A Stray Cat Struts: My Life As a Rockabilly Rebel, by Slim Jim Phantom.

His Final Battle: The Last Months of Franklin Roosevelt, by Joseph Lelyveld.

The Moving Target, by Ross Macdonald.

Life Is Not an Accident: a Memoir of Reinvention, by Jay Williams.

To Pixar and Beyond: My Unlikely Journey with Steve Jobs to Make Entertainment History, by Lawrence Levy

The Fybro Manual: a Complete Fibromyalgia Treatment Guide for You and Your Doctor, by Ginevra Liptan, M.D.

Old Ramon, by Jack Schaefer

The Black Widow, by Daniel Silva

Killing the Rising Sun: How America Vanquished World War II Japan, by Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard

SECURITY UPDATE

EMERGENCY VEHICLE SAFETY

Working in occupations that involve emergency response can be very dangerous. We are committed to doing our part to care for those who care for us, so remember these important rules when approaching authorized emergency vehicles on or around campus:

Upon the immediate approach of an authorized emergency vehicle displaying flashing emergency lights or when the driver is giving audible signal by siren, exhaust whistle or bell, the driver of every other vehicle shall immediately yield the right of way and move to the right-hand edge or curb of the roadway clear of any intersection and remain stopped until the authorized emergency vehicle has passed.

When approaching a stationary authorized emergency vehicle displaying flashing emergency lights, unless otherwise directed, the driver of a vehicle shall:

If reasonably safe to do so, drive in a lane not adjacent to where the authorized emergency vehicle is stopped, decrease the speed of the vehicle to a speed that is reasonable and prudent under the circumstances and proceed with caution; and/or be prepared to stop.

Remember, you can be cited for failure to observe these rules!

For more information please contact the Safety/ Security Department at (575) 624-7180 or visit our office located between the IC and ITC buildings.

Tunisian Graduation

Helicopter pilots and mechanics, known as maintainers with the Tunisian military participated in a graduation ceremony held at the Eastern New Mexico University-Roswell Performing Arts Center. The foreign military personnel in the northern Africa country have been training to fly and maintain Kiowa helicopters with Integration Innovation Inc., or I3, since Aug. I3 is based in Huntsville, Alabama, but has a new training center near the airport in Roswell. I3 has contracts with the State Department and U.S. Army to train foreign military personnel. The company previously worked with the Afghanistan and Iraq militaries.

Tunisians graduated on December 21, 2016 from the I3 program. They were hosted on the ENMU-Roswell campus for four months.

SPRING

REGISTRATION CELEBRATION

ENMU-Roswell hosted a Registration Day for students on January 12th. Students were able to enjoy food, fun and door prizes. The United Blood Services also held a blood drive during the event and had a successful turnout.
