

General Education Philosophy of Assessment

Through course and campus experiences, ENMU-Roswell students develop skills and knowledge necessary for academic, career, personal, and civic success. The curriculum provides students the foundation to create meaningful lives as contributors to their local communities and throughout the interconnected world. Students will complete courses across the following core disciplines: communication, mathematics, science, social and behavioral sciences, humanities, and the fine and creative arts.